

Canadian Journalism for Internationally Trained Writers

The Sheridan Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning offers a one-year, graduate certificate program in Canadian Journalism for Internationally Trained Writers.

New Info Session information: Wednesday, May 23, 2007 at 7-9 p.m., at Sheridan Centre for Animation and Emerging Technologies, Room S209.

For more information:
<http://internationaljournalism.sheridaninstitute.ca>

Meet Maryam Aghvami, Journalist and
President of Journalists in Exile,
The Hamilton Spectator
Managing Editor James Poling,
Program Coordinator, professors, and current students.

I CHOOSE

Sheridan

